

1. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'None of these people have heard the song.'?

- Demonstrative pronoun
- Possessive pronoun
- Relative pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun

2. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'His mom said to go to the store and buy bread.'?

- Relative pronoun
- Possessive pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun

3. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'The jewelry is mine.'?

- Indefinite pronoun
- Possessive pronoun
- Relative pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun

4. Describe the role of relative pronouns in a sentence.

- Relative pronouns replace nouns to avoid repetition.
- Relative pronouns refer to non-specific items or people.
- Relative pronouns connect clauses and provide additional information about a noun.
- Relative pronouns indicate ownership or possession.

5. Describe the role of the pronoun in the sentence: 'The lady who lives in that house bought a new car.'

- The pronoun 'who' indicates possession of the house.
- The pronoun 'who' replaces a noun to avoid repetition.
- The pronoun 'who' introduces a relative clause that provides more information about 'the lady.'
- The pronoun 'who' refers to an unspecified person.

6. Describe the role of possessive pronouns in a sentence, using 'yours' from the example provided.

- Possessive pronouns are used to ask questions about objects.
- Possessive pronouns indicate ownership or possession, as seen with 'yours' which shows that the sunglasses belong to someone.
- Possessive pronouns replace nouns in a sentence.
- Possessive pronouns describe the characteristics of a noun.

7. Describe the function of the pronoun in the sentence: 'The jewelry is mine.'

- The pronoun refers to an unspecified person or thing.
- The pronoun replaces a noun in the sentence.
- The pronoun connects clauses in the sentence.
- The pronoun indicates ownership of the jewelry.

8. Describe the role of the pronoun in the sentence: 'None of these people have heard the song.'

- The pronoun 'None' refers to an unspecified number of people.
- The pronoun 'None' specifies a particular group of people.
- The pronoun 'None' indicates ownership of the song.
- The pronoun 'None' connects clauses in the sentence.

9. Describe the role of possessive pronouns in the sentence: 'This is my book.'

- The pronoun 'my' replaces a noun in the sentence.
- The pronoun 'my' refers to a group of people.
- The pronoun 'my' is used to ask a question.
- The possessive pronoun 'my' indicates ownership of the book.

10. Describe the role of the pronoun in the sentence: 'The movie that Katie saw was fantastic.'

- The pronoun 'that' indicates ownership of the movie by Katie.
- The pronoun 'that' replaces the noun 'movie' in the sentence.
- The pronoun 'that' is used to refer to an unspecified movie.
- The pronoun 'that' introduces a relative clause providing more information about the noun 'movie.'

11. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'The movie that Katie saw was fantastic.'?

- Relative pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun
- Possessive pronoun

12. In a story, if a character says, 'Everyone should bring their own lunch,' identify the type of pronoun used and explain its significance in the context of the sentence.

- Relative pronoun; it connects the clause to the character's action.
- Demonstrative pronoun; it points to a specific group of people.
- Indefinite pronoun; it refers to people in general without specifying who they are.
- Possessive pronoun; it indicates ownership of the lunch.

13. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'The lady who lives in that house bought a new car.'?

- Relative pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun
- Possessive pronoun

14. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence 'Are these sunglasses yours.'?

- Relative pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun
- Possessive pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun

15. What type of pronoun is found in the sentence: 'Someone left their umbrella here.'?

- Relative pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun
- Possessive pronoun

16. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'The cat that chased the mouse is mine.'?

- Indefinite pronoun
- Demonstrative pronoun
- Relative pronoun
- Possessive pronoun

17. In the sentence 'Anyone can join the club if they want to,' identify the type of pronoun used and explain its significance in the context of inclusivity.

- Demonstrative pronoun; it points to a specific club.
- Indefinite pronoun; it signifies that membership is open to all individuals without specifying who.
- Relative pronoun; it connects the clause to a specific individual.
- Possessive pronoun; it indicates ownership of the club.

18. Describe the role of the pronoun in the sentence: 'His mom said to go to the store and buy bread.'

- The pronoun 'His' serves as the subject of the sentence.
- The pronoun 'His' indicates ownership or possession related to the noun 'mom.'
- The pronoun 'His' connects two clauses in the sentence.
- The pronoun 'His' refers to an unspecified person.

19. In the sentence 'The book which she borrowed was interesting,' identify the pronoun and classify its type.

- The pronoun is 'the' and it is an indefinite pronoun.
- The pronoun is 'book' and it is a demonstrative pronoun.
- The pronoun is 'she' and it is a possessive pronoun.
- The pronoun is 'which' and it is a relative pronoun.

20. What type of pronoun is used in the sentence: 'Did you do any homework today.'?

- Demonstrative pronoun
- Indefinite pronoun
- Relative pronoun
- Possessive pronoun