

Haunted Houses

Dictation Test

Instructions:

- You will hear part of a podcast.
- Some words are missing. Write what you hear.

A. Dictation. Specific Instructions: Listen to the episode  Haunted Houses 2x.mp3 and complete the following text.

Presenter: For tonight's episode of 'The most haunted houses in America', we sent our _____ to the Drish House in _____, Alabama.

Felix: OK, so I'm at Drish House. It's not really near any _____ and it's very _____ outside.

There aren't any ghostly noises... but people tell stories of an _____ who haunts the place with a third-story tower _____, and yet when people check on it, there's no fire. Ah, what's that?! I thought I saw something in the _____ above the fireplace. I don't like this.

Presenter: Felix didn't _____ the night at Drish House. He really felt there was something _____ there. Now let's see how Jackie got on in Florida.

Jackie: This is the Stranahan House in Fort _____. It's a registered historic _____ and it's more than 100 years old. Here's Finn O'Keeffe who gives _____ of the place. Are there any ghosts in this old house, Finn?

Finn: There are _____ of them here, to be exact. One of them is one of the _____, Frank Stranahan, who died during the Great _____.

Jackie: How does the haunting _____?

Finn: Well, I've experienced rooms changing _____ and randomly. Just last week I saw _____ move around on their own.

Jackie: What did you do?

Finn: I ran. I ran down the _____ and right out the front _____!