

Choose the correct answer from a,b,c or d.

1. What is the genre of "In the Shadow of a Volcano"?

- A. Fantasy
- B. Historical Fiction
- C. Biography
- D. Science Fiction

2. What natural disaster is central to the story?

- A. Earthquake
- B. Tsunami
- C. Hurricane
- D. Volcanic Eruption

3. What does the word "forage" mean in the text?

- A. To build a shelter
- B. To dig underground
- C. To search for food
- D. To catch animals

4. Which group of people lived on Mount Pinatubo with Datu?

- A. Tagalog tribe
- C. Ilocano tribe

B. Aeta tribe

D. Cebuano tribe

5. What made Mount Pinatubo special to the Aeta people?

- A. They believed it protected them and provided everything they needed.
- B. It was the only place they could plant rice.
- C. They thought it had magical powers.
- D. It was a famous tourist spot.

6. Why had the people stopped fearing the volcano before it erupted?

- A. Scientists told them it would never erupt again.
- B. It hadn't erupted in hundreds of years.
- C. They built walls to block lava.
- D. They had moved far from it.

7. Which of these is a clue that the volcano was going to erupt?

- A. It got very cold suddenly.
- B. The mountain started glowing.
- C. A loud roar came from the mountain.
- D. Smoke and ash began to rise from it.

8. What is the setting of the story?

- A. A modern-day city in the U.S.
- B. The ancient city of Pompeii
- C. Mount Pinatubo, Philippines in the early 1990s
- D. A desert in Africa

9. What does the word "plume" refer to in the context of the eruption?

- A) Lava flows
- B) A column of smoke/ash
- C) Earthquake tremors
- D) Evacuation routes

10. Based on the texts, what does "dormant" mean when describing Mount Pinatubo?

- A) Completely extinct
- B) Temporarily inactive
- C) Extremely dangerous
- D) Safe to live near

11. What type of characters can you find in historical fiction?

- A. Only real historical people
- B. Only made-up characters
- C. Robots and aliens
- D. Real and made-up characters

Answer Key

B – Historical Fiction

B – Datu has always lived there, Julie just moved

C – Michigan

D – Volcanic Eruption

C – To search for food

B – Aeta tribe

A – It protected and provided for them

B – It hadn't erupted in hundreds of years

D – Smoke and ash began to rise

C – Mount Pinatubo, Philippines in the early 1990s

Lesson Summary – In the Shadow of a Volcano

Setting and Historical Context

The story is set in the early 1990s near Mount Pinatubo in the Philippines, shortly before its real-life eruption. The setting plays a major role in shaping the plot and the lives of the characters.

Characters from Different Backgrounds

Two main characters, Datu and Julie, come from different worlds—Datu is a native Aeta boy, while Julie is an American girl who recently moved to the Philippines. Their experiences highlight cultural differences and shared challenges.

Impact of Natural Disasters

The eruption of Mount Pinatubo changes everything. The story shows how natural disasters affect both nature and human life, including the need for evacuation and relocation.

Theme of Adaptation and Resilience

Both Datu and Julie must adapt to changes brought by the volcano. The story explores how people show resilience, work together, and find strength in tough times.