

SPORTS VENUES

WITH A DIFFERENCE!

The Camp Nou in Barcelona is one of the biggest football (a) in the world, with a capacity of approximately 100,000 people. Manchester United (1) beat/won a memorable Champion's League final there, when they (2) beat/won Bayern Munich. In the 91st minute they were (3) drawing/losing 1-0 (one-nil). Then they (4) scored/shot a goal and it was 1-1 (one all). They got another (5) goal/point thirty seconds later, in the last minute of the (6) league/match.

Musselburgh Links in Scotland is the oldest golf (b) in the world. They say that Mary Queen of Scots played there in 1567!

The English national football team plays at Wembley. They also have pop and rock concerts there. When they do this, they need to cover the (c) so that nothing happens to the grass, which is quite expensive.

The Wimbledon Tennis Championships® began in 1877. It can take about 15 months to prepare the grass for the outdoor (d) where the top players compete.

The word (e) comes from a longer word which was the name for the place in Ancient Greece where athletes trained and took exercise. Sometimes they had a (f) nearby which they could run around.

Y-40 in Padua, Italy, is the deepest (g) in the world. You can swim 40 metres down! The water is 32°C.

One of the most beautiful places in the world to skate is the (h) which they sometimes install in Moscow's Red Square near St. Basil's Cathedral.

Corbet's Couloir in Wyoming, US, is one of the world's most frightening ski (i) There's a very big jump and it's quite rocky!

LIVEWORKSHEETS