

ACTIVITY 1:

Choose the sentence that best reflects the meaning described in parentheses.

- 1) Recalling a past action
- 2) Stopping an ongoing action
- 3) Experimenting with a method
- 4) Feeling sorry about a past action
- 5) Continuing an existing action

ACTIVITY 2:

Complete the following business sentences with the correct form of the verb (either -ing or to + infinitive) based on the context.

- 1) I clearly remember _____ (discuss) the budget in our last meeting.
- 2) The manager stopped _____ (take) a phone call during the presentation.
- 3) They are trying _____ (reach) a consensus on the new strategy.
- 4) We regret _____ (announce) that there will be some restructuring within the department.
- 5) Despite the initial setbacks, the team went on _____ (develop) the new product.
- 6) He tried _____ (fix) the technical issue with the software, but it was too complex.
- 7) She remembers _____ (schedule) the client meeting for Tuesday morning.

