

ETHICS

Look at the following activities, in your opinion which one is the most unethical? Order them accordingly to what you think.

Finding ways of paying as little tax as possible

Using your work computer or phone for private purposes (e.g. online shopping)

Accepting praise for someone else's ideas or work

Using your influence to get jobs for friends or relatives (nepotism)

Selling something as genuine when you know it is not

Phoning in sick at work when you are not ill

Not telling the truth about your age or experience on an application form

Not saying anything when you are charged too little for something by mistake

Paying people in cash for jobs done around the home in order to reduce the cost

Claiming extra expenses (e.g. getting a taxi receipt for more than the actual fare)
