

Sorting Out Adverbs

Adverbs are words that add more description to adjectives, verbs, or other adverbs. They express a location, degree, manner, time, or frequency.

Directions: Sort the adverbs in the word bank below into the graphic organizer on the next page. Sort until you have found at least ten adverbs for each category.

Adverb Bank

above	daily	happily	quickly	there absolutely	defiantly	here	quietly	thoroughly accidentally	down	hourly	quite	today afterward	downward	hungrily	rarely	tomorrow again	early	immediately	recently	tonight almost	elegantly	incredibly	regularly	too already	enough	inside	remarkably	totally always	entirely	just	repeatedly	underneath angrily	especially	lately	sadly	up anywhere	eventually	later	safely	upstairs around	ever	little	seldom	upward away	everywhere	loudly	seriously	usually awkwardly	extremely	monthly	sideways	very barely	fairly	much	since	weekly before	finally	never	softly	well behind	foolishly	normally	sometimes	wildly below	forward	now	soon	worldwide boldly	frequently	occasionally	still	yearly completely	generously	often	super	yesterday constantly	gladly	outside	then	yet

Directions: Sort the adverbs in the word bank on page 1 into the graphic organizer below. Sort until you have found at least ten adverbs for each category.