

Comparison of adjectives

I. CHOOSE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE COMPARATIVE:

1. John Lennon was (old) than Paul McCartney.
2. Some people think Maths is (easy) than English.
3. Eric is (afraid) of spiders than his friend Charlie.
4. Dogs are (intelligent) than cats.
5. Cartoons are (good) than music programmes.
6. The Empire State is (big) than the Chrysler Building.
7. Paris is (small) than London, but (big) than Belgrade.

II. CHOOSE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE SUPERLATIVE:

1. The mount Everest is the (high) mountain in the world.
2. Which is the (dangerous) animal in the world?
3. He is the (lazy) boy of all.
4. Susan is the (pretty) girl in our class.
5. This is the (interesting) book I have ever read.
6. Who is the (rich) woman on earth?
7. Today's weather is the (bad) this month.
8. We had the (good) holiday ever.
9. What is the (favourite) teacher's song? It's .

Write the comparatives and superlatives of these adjectives:

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
old	older	the oldest cold
easy comfortable expensive complicated good bad
many/much/a lot of little		