CHAPTER 10
The Guest

True or False Questions

1. Mullah Nasruddin was invited to a feast by a poor man. (True / False)
2. The Mullah first wore his shabbiest clothes to the feast. (True / False)
3. The servant recognized the Mullah immediately when he arrived in ragged clothes. (True / False)
4. The rich man welcomed the Mullah warmly when he arrived in fine clothes. (True / False)
5. The Mullah ate the food normally when he was finally seated at the feast. (True / False)

Fill in the Blanks

1. Mullah Nasruddin wore an old black coat with patches made from _____.
2. The servant called the Mullah a _____ when he arrived in ragged clothes.
3. The rich man's friends were _____ and kings.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. The Mullah sprinkled _____ on his face and hands before returning to the feast.

5. The Mullah fed the shish-kebab to his _____.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did the Mullah wear shabby clothes first?

   - A) He had no other clothes
   - B) He wanted to test the rich man's hospitality
   - C) He was poor
   - D) He forgot about the feast

2. How did the servant react when the Mullah arrived in rags?

   - A) He welcomed him warmly
   - B) He laughed and invited him in
   - C) He called him a beggar and refused entry
   - D) He ignored him

3. What did the Mullah do when he returned in fine clothes?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- A) He refused to enter
- B) He was greeted with respect
- C) He scolded the rich man
- D) He left immediately

4. What lesson did the rich man learn?

- A) Never judge people by their clothes
- B) Always invite beggars to feasts
- C) Fine clothes are unnecessary
- D) Servants should be kinder

5. What did the Mullah do with the soup at the feast?

- A) Drank it quickly
- B) Poured it over his cap
- C) Gave it to the servant
- D) Spilled it on purpose

6. How did the rich man feel after the Mullah's actions?

- A) Angry

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- B) Amused
- C) Ashamed
- D) Proud

7. What did the Mullah sprinkle on himself before returning?

- A) Salt
- B) Rose water
- C) Perfume
- D) Flour

8. Why did the Mullah feed his clothes instead of eating?

- A) He wasn't hungry
- B) He wanted to honor his clothes
- C) To show that the rich man valued appearances over people
- D) As a joke

9. What did the servant threaten the Mullah with?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- A) A stick
- B) Calling the police
- C) A fine
- D) A curse

10. What did the rich man promise at the end?

- A) To never hold feasts again
- B) To judge people by their clothes
- C) To never judge people by appearances again
- D) To fire his servant

LIVEWORKSHEETS