

Should vs. Have to – Classroom Behavior

Part 1: Complete the Sentences

Fill in the blanks with have to, should, or shouldn't.

1. You _____ listen when the teacher is talking.
2. Students _____ bring their books to class.
3. You _____ talk while others are speaking.
4. We _____ help our classmates when they have questions.
5. You _____ run inside the classroom.
6. I _____ do my homework every day.
7. We _____ arrive on time for class.
8. You _____ eat snacks during lessons.

Part 2: Choose the Correct Option

Choose the correct option.

9. In class, you (should / shouldn't) respect others.
10. You (have to / shouldn't) wear your uniform.
11. Students (have to / should) be quiet during tests.
12. We (shouldn't / have to) be rude to the teacher.
13. You (should / have to) ask questions when you don't understand.

Part 3: Match the Sentences

Match the situations with the advice. Write the correct letter.

Situation

- A. A student never studies.
- B. You broke your friend's pencil.
- C. Someone is being bullied.
- D. A student yells at the teacher.

Advice

1. You should say sorry.
2. You shouldn't do that.
3. You have to study more.
4. You have to tell an adult.

Answers:

A: _____ B: _____ C: _____ D: _____

Part 4: Write Your Advice

Write one sentence for each situation using have to, should, or shouldn't.

14. Your friend is using a cellphone in class.

15. Your classmate never does homework.

"Ser peruano es un honor, Leoncipradino lo mejor"