SECTION 4

Questions 31–40

Complete the notes below.

Write ONE WORD ONLY for each answer.

Economics and Trust

- Trust relies on the stranger's 31. __________.
- The understanding of trust can reduce 32. __________.

How to measure trust

- People's ability of recognizing a person's 33. __________.
- Oxytocin will be released when 34. __________ occurs.

Experiments: two participants

- The first participant decides whether to lend the money or not.
- The second participant has no 35. __________ to return the money.
- Trust involves a 36. __________, so it is conditional.
- If animals have 37. __________, they will be seen to have oxytocin.

Nash equilibrium

- Participants have no 38. __________ that the other person would change his or her decision.
- People under stress have 39. __________ levels of oxytocin.
- Oxytocin is a social 40. __________.