

CHAPTER 4 THE NATION'S BUILDER

True or False (5 Questions)

- 1. True / False: The poem states that gold makes a nation great and strong.
- 2. True / False: The poem emphasizes that brave men work while others sleep.
- 3. True / False: According to the poem, truth and honor are unimportant qualities.
- 4. True / False: The poem suggests that nations are built by those who avoid suffering.
- 5. True / False: The pillars of a nation are lifted to the sky by material wealth.

Fill in the Blanks (5 Questions)

- 1. The poem declares that not gold, but only _____ can make a people great.
- 2. Brave men dare while others _____.
- 3. Men who stand fast do so for the sake of _____ and _____.

4. The poem describes brave men as those who build a nation's _____ deep.

5. These men lift the pillars of the nation to the
_____.

Multiple Choice Questions (10 Questions)

1. What does the poem say makes a nation great?

- A) Gold
- B) Brave men
- C) Strong armies
- D) Wealthy leaders

2. What do brave men do while others sleep?

- A) Rest
- B) Work
- C) Fly
- D) Suffer

3. For what do men stand fast and suffer long?

- A) Gold and power
- B) Truth and honour
- C) Fame and glory
- D) Wealth and land

4. What metaphor does the poem use for a nation's foundation?

- A) Walls
- B) Pillars
- C) Towers
- D) Bridges

5. What action do brave men take while others "fly"?

- A) Hide
- B) Sleep
- C) Dare
- D) Cry

6. Where are the nation's pillars lifted?

- A) To the ocean
- B) To the sky
- C) To the mountains
- D) To the city

7. What is contrasted with "men" in the poem's opening lines?

- A) Silver
- B) Gold

- C) Diamonds
- D) Land

8. Which quality is NOT mentioned in the poem?

- A) Honesty
- B) Bravery
- C) Greed
- D) Honour

9. What do the "pillars" symbolize in the poem?

- A) Weakness
- B) Corruption
- C) Strength and stability
- D) Temporary structures

10. What is the central message of the poem?

- A) Wealth determines a nation's success.
- B) Brave, honorable men build a nation's greatness.
- C) Nations need strong leaders to survive.
- D) Sleep is essential for progress.