

CHAPTER 11

The Queen Fish

True/False Questions

1. The queen-fish claimed to be the ruler of the aquarium as soon as she was introduced. (True / False)
2. Sheetal immediately recognized the queen-fish was causing problems for the other fish. (True / False)
3. The crab supported the queen-fish's dominance over the aquarium. (True / False)
4. The cat attacked the queen-fish because it was hungry. (True / False)
5. The queen-fish apologized and reconciled with the other fish in the end. (True / False)

Fill in the Blanks

1. The queen-fish divided the aquarium into two parts, keeping the _____ section for herself.
2. Sheetal bought new fish-food rich in _____ to help her fish recover.

3. The crab warned the queen-fish by _____ against the aquarium glass.
4. The queen-fish was temporarily isolated in a _____ placed on the windowsill.
5. The aquarium "glowed with happiness" because the queen-fish _____.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did the queen-fish demand obedience from the other fish?
 - a) She was the oldest fish.
 - b) She claimed to be their queen.
 - c) She wanted to protect them.
 - d) She was hungry.
2. What did Sheetal initially think was wrong with her fish?
 - a) They were starving.
 - b) They had a disease.

- c) They were fighting.
- d) They disliked the crab.

3. How did the crab save the queen-fish from the cat?

- a) By biting the cat's paw.
- b) By banging on the aquarium glass.
- c) By hiding the queen-fish.
- d) By waking Sheetal.

4. Why did the cat target the queen-fish specifically?

- a) The queen-fish was aggressive.
- b) The queen-fish was colorful and unusual.
- c) The cat was hungry.
- d) The crab tricked the cat.

5. What changed the queen-fish's behavior toward the other fish?

- a) Sheetal scolded her.
- b) The crab's kindness and her near-death experience.
- c) The cat's attack.
- d) The new fish food.

6. How did the other fish react when the queen-fish returned to the aquarium?

- a) They celebrated immediately.
- b) They were horrified at first.
- c) They ignored her.
- d) They attacked her.

7. What was the queen-fish's attitude after being isolated in the jar?

- a) She apologized immediately.
- b) She remained proud and aloof.

- c) She cried for help.
- d) She tried to escape.

8. What role did the crab play in the story?

- a) A strict enforcer of rules.
- b) A compassionate helper.
- c) A silent observer.
- d) A rival to the queen-fish.

9. What did the queen-fish do after rejoining the aquarium?

- a) Continued to dominate the others.
- b) Praised the aquarium and asked to live peacefully.
- c) Hid in the plants.
- d) Ate all the food again.

10. Why did Sheetal put the queen-fish back into the aquarium?

- a) The cat demanded it.
- b) She felt the queen-fish was lonely.
- c) The crab begged her to.
- d) The fish food healed her.