

Revision Quiz 3

Based on the listening tests 5 and 6.
Choose the most plausible answer.

1. "The audacity!" is similar in meaning to:

- A) "How wonderful!"
- B) "I don't understand."
- C) "How dare they!"

2. You would respond "Beats me" when

- A) you know that you lost an argument
- B) you have no information or idea about the answer
- C) you didn't understand the question and want the other person to repeat it

3. Someone who quits smoking "for good" intends to

- A) smoke only good quality cigarettes
- B) stop smoking forever
- C) stop smoking for now because it's beneficial for their health

4. If a friend tells you some news, and you respond "Get out of here!", you are probably showing:

- A) anger
- B) surprise
- C) agreement

5. "Ditto" is another way to say:

- A) "I don't understand."
- B) "Same."
- C) "Absolutely not."

6. Which situation would make saying "Serves you right" inappropriate?

- A) Someone losing their wallet after being careless
- B) Someone failing a test they didn't study for
- C) Someone being injured in a tragic accident

7. Which situation fits the use of "Just as well!"?

- A) Your flight was cancelled, meaning you miss an important meeting.
- B) You forgot your umbrella, but it didn't rain after all.
- C) You planned a picnic, and it rained heavily all day.

8. If a friend applies for a scholarship but doesn't receive it, you might say:

- A) "Serves you right!"
- B) "Just as well!"
- C) "Better luck next time."

9. You might say "Too bad" when someone tells you

- A) they are bad at sports
- B) they got the promotion they wanted
- C) they missed their train or lost their keys

10. If a friend asks if they can have the last slice of pizza, replying "Knock yourself out!" means:

- A) "Absolutely not."
- B) "Go ahead, take it."
- C) "You will be in trouble if you try to take it away from me!"

11. Saying "Fair enough" indicates that you

- A) strongly disagree but will pretend to agree
- B) understand and accept the other person's reasoning or decision
- C) are about to present a counter-argument

12. You might say "Touché" after someone:

- A) tells a confusing story
- B) makes a clever point against you
- C) asks you to leave