Put the statements in the correct category.

He introduced a new tax system, where the revenue collected was deposited into the residents' treasury.	He set up the State Council to represent Malay, British and Chinese sectors of Perak society.
Improved efficiency of administration through dividing Perak into districts controlled by appointed officers.	He announced a new Code of Civil and Criminal Law. This stated that the local village Penghulu would be responsible to the Resident and not the local chiefs.
He wanted to end debt slavery and provided sanctuary for runaway slaves.	He set up courts of justice with both European and Malay magistrates.
Improved communications by building roads, telegraph lines and railway.	He abolished the sultan and Malay chief's rights to collect taxes but compensated them with official positions and pensions.

JWW BIRCH	SIR HUGH LOW

LIVEWORKSHEETS