

Complete the sentences with words from the box:

advice | close | cold | feel sick | feel well | geek | headache
housework | opticians | painkiller | respond | should shouldn't | sore throat | stay up | toothache | what's up | whiteboard

- My mom gave me some _____ about studying for my test.
- My best friend lives in a _____ neighborhood, so we can walk to each other's houses.
- I have a _____ so I can't eat ice cream today.
- When someone asks you a question, you _____ to them.
- After playing in the snow, I caught a _____.
- The teacher writes our homework on the _____ every day.
- My brother is a computer _____ who knows a lot about technology.
- You _____ take a _____ if you have a bad headache.
- "_____?" "Not much, just doing my homework."
- I don't want to do _____ today because I don't _____.
-

Read and choose "should" or "shouldn't":

- You have a headache. You should/shouldn't take a painkiller.
- You have a sore throat. You should/shouldn't eat ice cream.
- You should/shouldn't properly respond when someone asks you a question.
- You should/shouldn't stay up late if you feel sick.
- You have a cold. You should/shouldn't go to school.
- You need advice. You should/shouldn't ask your teacher.
- You have a toothache. You should/shouldn't eat candy.
- Your eyes hurt. You should/shouldn't visit the opticians.
- Your friend feels sick. You should/shouldn't help them.
- The whiteboard is dirty. You should/shouldn't clean it.
- You are a geek who loves computers. You should/shouldn't learn coding.
- You have finished your housework. You should/shouldn't take a break.