

SILVER ENGLISH COACH

Cursos de Inglés online
@silverenglishcoach

San Rafael – Mendoza – Argentina

Listening : A trip to the hospital

I _____ get my tonsils out.

I'm not really happy _____, but I'm tired of being sick and having sore throats.

I have to go to the hospital _____ before my surgery.

My mother _____ with me.

The nurses will take my temperature and check _____ pressure.

They will _____ that I am ready for my operation.

I will be dressed in _____ gown, and I will be wheeled _____ to the operating room.

I can't have _____ to eat or drink for a long time before my surgery.

My mother will _____ the hall with me;

then she will wave goodbye _____ wheel me into the operating room.

The doctor and the nurses _____ in the operating room.

They will be _____ to perform my surgery.

The doctor will say hello to me and tell me that he is _____ me to sleep.

He will put _____ into my arm.

He will tell me to _____ from ten.

I think that I will only say "ten, nine" and then I will be _____.

I won't be awake for the _____.

When I wake up, I will be surprised that the surgery _____.

_____ will hurt, and I probably won't feel very good.

My mother will be there with me.

The nurses will give me _____ and try to make me comfortable.

I won't be _____ overnight.

I will go home later in the day.

My parents _____ make sure that I have a lot to drink.

I can't eat _____ or they will hurt my throat.

I will sleep a lot, because I will not feel very well _____ of days.

It _____ before I recover from my surgery.

Sometimes, we need surgery to make us _____.

Hospitals can be _____ frightening,

but the doctors and nurses are very nice, and their job is to _____.