Unusual restaurants • food adjectives • food

Eat out for less

'How much is it?' In some restaurants, the answer is: 'What you want to pay.' Here are some of the 'Pay-what-you-want' restaurants around the world.

A Der Wiener Deewan, Vienna, Austria

This is a Pakistani restaurant but it is in Vienna. You go down some stairs to a small room with seats for about fifty people. There are no menus and no waiters. The food is in large, hot, containers on a table and you take what you want. The meal then costs what you want to pay. The traditional, Pakistani food is delicious, but be careful, some of it is very spicy! Try the Methi Gajar – spicy but sweet vegetables – and, of course, some Pakistani rice. The restaurant isn't only a 'pay-what-you-want' restaurant but also a 'play what you want' restaurant. In the evenings, you can take a djembe, an African drum, and play music with others. It's a really cool place to spend some time.

B Soul Kitchen – Red Bank, New Jersey, USA

Soul Kitchen is a great place to go for lunch. The menu has choices of starters – my favourite is the mixed green salad, main course – fish, meat or vegetarian, and dessert. But, it doesn't have any prices. That's because you can pay what you want. The restaurant asks for $10 or more, but people who haven't got $10 can eat there and work for an hour to pay for their meal. The food is healthy and local. The restaurant even has a garden and grows a lot of the vegetables that they use in their meals.

C Lentil As Anything, Melbourne, Australia

This is a vegetarian restaurant in Australia's second city. In fact, there are four Lentil As Anything restaurants in the city. Nine hundred people eat in the restaurant in the Abbotsford district of the city every day. The restaurants are open all day and you can eat breakfast, lunch and dinner there. They are friendly places where you can chat to other customers, listen to good music and, when you leave, you put some money in a box. The food is healthy and delicious. They don't serve meat but you can find great food with other ingredients like pumpkin. Their pumpkin curry is amazing.

GLOSSARY

drum (n) – a musical instrument played by hitting it with your hand or a stick
