

What Do You See?

Exercise 1. Order the questions and answers.

Order each question and answer and discover the examples of what there is and there are.

Example:

0. bed / there / a / Is?

Is there a bed?

R = is / there / Yes.

Yes, there is.

1. lamps / Are / two / there?

R= lamps / , / two / there / Yes / are .

2. there / chair / Is / a?

R= chair / a / , / Yes / is / there

3. cooker / Is / a / there?

R= there / , / isn't / No

_____.

4. three / there / windows / Are?

_____.
R= windows / aren't / No / there / , / three

_____.

Exercise 2. Things in the room.

Look at the photos and answer the questions. Use there is, there isn't, there are or there aren't, plus the quantity of furniture and its name.

Example:

(Note. Remember to start writing with a capital letter)

Are there two bathrooms?

R = Yes, there are two bathrooms.

Or if it is negative

R = No, there aren't two bathrooms.

1.

a. Is there a bookcase?

R = _____.

b. Is there a sofa?

R = _____.

c. Are there two mirrors?

R = _____.

d. Is there a toilet?

R = _____.

2.

a. Are there five chairs?

R = _____.

b. Is there a tv?

R = _____.

c. Are there three armchairs?

R = _____.

d. Is there a table?

R = _____.

Check the correct answers at this link →