PASSAGE 9.

Tra ID Đề [5660] - Tra ID Video [5661]

In medieval times, attitudes towards bathing were complex and varied. While some people valued cleanliness and hygiene, (1) _____ For example, there was a belief that bathing during the summer could lead to illness or even death. Some people also (2) _____. The rich enjoyed bathing in wooden bathtubs filled with hot water, often with perfumes and flower petals. Having a private bath was a sign of wealth and importance. King John, for example, (3) _____ In the early 1800s, bathing was becoming increasingly recognised as important for health. Metal bathtubs started making their way into homes, which helped to improve personal hygiene. Furthermore, bathing in the sea also became popular as people (4) _____ Most homes in the UK now have access to running hot water, which is important for keeping clean and taking baths and showers.

A. believed that taking long baths could make them weak or even gain weight.

B. believed it could cure skin problems.

C. others were worried about the potential risks associated with bathing.

D. used to take his own bath with him while travelling so he could have privacy and comfort.

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

PASSAGE 10

Tra ID Đề [5662] - Tra ID Video [5663]

Nowadays, teenagers like to watch music videos online. This is now more popular than listening to the radio. Some videos can (1) _____ Some music hits get more than 10 million Views in less than 20 minutes. Downloading music is a popular choice for youngsters. People in many countries prefer downloading singles rather than albums. (2) _____ Using file-sharing websites to download music is often illegal but some people still continue to get their music this way. People can listen to their music without paying for it. (3) _____

What are you and your friends listening to these days? Hip-hop dance, rock, heavy metal, rap? Music tastes are (4) _____ A shopping centre in the UK recently discovered what kind of music some local teenagers don't like. This is what happened: shoppers and shop owners complained to the police about teenagers behaving badly there. When a new sound system started playing Bach, Mozart and Beethoven, the antisocial behaviour stopped. The young people who caused problems had gone!

A. This only costs a small amount of money.

B. quickly become extremely popular internationally and reach one billion views.

C. very varied amongst teenagers around the world.

D. Record companies and many musicians are very unhappy about it

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS