

Present Simple I

New words – draw lines!

pyramid

Christmas market

origami crane

fan

Fill in the blanks with the correct present simple form of the verbs in brackets

We are all different but we are all friends

Lina and her friends _____ (be) at school. They _____ (come) from different countries. Lina _____ (be) from Spain. Ali _____ (be) from Egypt. Emma _____ (be) from Germany. Kenji _____ (be) from Japan. They _____ (speak) English at school.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

One day, their teacher _____ (say), “Let’s learn about our cultures.” She _____ (ask) them to bring something special.

Lina _____ (bring) a fan. “This _____ (come) from Spain,” she _____ (say). Ali _____ (have) a small pyramid. “It _____ (show) Egyptian history,” he _____ (say). Emma _____ (show) a photo. “This _____ (be) a Christmas market in Germany,” she _____ (say). Kenji _____ (bring) an origami crane. “We _____ (make) these in Japan for good luck,” he _____ (say).

The children _____ (look) at the things. They _____ (smile) and _____ (learn) about each other. They _____ (see) that they _____ (be) different, but also the same. They all _____ (like) to play. They all _____ (like) to help. The children _____ (make) a big picture with the fan, pyramid, photo, and crane. They _____ (write): “We are all different but we are all friends.”

LIVEWORKSHEETS