PASSAGE 21

Tra ID Đề [5684] - Tra ID Video [5685]

Local communities are essential for the well-being of residents. Recently, a community garden opened in the town center, (1) _____. Residents grow fruits and vegetables, and volunteers help maintain the space. It has also become a place for socializing and holding local events. However, some communities face issues like rising crime rates, vandalism, and lack of security. (2) _____. Authorities (3) _____ to improve the situation. These actions have not only reduced crime but also made people feel safer.

(4) _____. Many residents prefer to shop locally rather than at large chains because they appreciate the personalized service and believe in supporting the local economy. Supporting local shops helps the economy and builds stronger connections between neighbors, who often know the shop owners personally.

A. have worked with residents

B. offering a green space for everyone to enjoy

C. To address this, neighborhoods have improved lighting, and increased police patrols

D. In addition, local businesses play an important role

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

PASSAGE 22

Tra ID Đề [5686] - Tra 8D Video [5687]

Parks have long been thought of as vast city-owned, tree-covered areas which are put aside for people to relax in. They are expected (1) _____. However, many modem and densely-populated cities have little land for such traditional parks.

Instead of complaining about the lack of such parks in their city, a group of concerned residents of Creek County in California (2) _____. These parks maybe often be smaller in size, but they can still bring to a community most of the benefits of a much larger green space, providing balance amid busy and populous areas. These volunteers (3) _____. The project has been greeted (4) _____, and has involved almost every resident in the area: cleaning up the area, planting trees and flowers, putting in benches and creating outdoor activities for children. Volunteers also help maintain the parks.

A. to be large enough for activities like cycling, running, public gatherings, and various outdoor games

B. with lots of local enthusiasm

C. have become more creative in building new neighbourhood and community parks

D. have been successful in turning some abandoned public locations on the areas into green and relaxing spaces

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS