PASSAGE 27

Tra ID Đề [5696] - Tra ID Video [5697]

Most of us like living near other people in a community. Why? Early humans lived in large groups called tribes. People in tribes shared food and kept each other safe. (1) _____. Being part of a community, a modem kind of tribe, impacts our health and happiness in many ways. (2) _____. If we are sick, close social connections help us get better faster. And they help us sleep better, too. One study showed that being part of communities (3) _____. People who have good social connections do better at school. They are also more productive at work and keep their jobs longer. In conclusion, it might take effort, but the benefits of (4) _____. Communities make us feel good and help us deal with the problem of loneliness.

A. gives you a 50 percent chance of living longer

B. making connections in your community are worth it

C. As a result, our brains are hardwired to connect with other people

D. Being in a community has many positive effects

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

PASSAGE 28

Tra ID Đề [5698] - Tra ID Video [5699]

Cultural heritage consists of both tangible and intangible elements that reflect the history and identity of communities. Tangible cultural heritage includes physical objects such as statues, monuments, artworks, and musical instruments. (1) _____. On the other hand, intangible cultural heritage includes traditions, oral histories, arts, and knowledge and skills (2) _____. These elements are vital for understanding a community's values and ways of life, yet they cannot be physically touched or seen. UNESCO (3) _____. It has acknowledged nearly seven hundred forms of intangible culture across one hundred forty countries. (4) _____. For instance, Arabic calligraphy, which is beautifully shown in the Museum of the Future in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, has been recognized as intangible cultural heritage shared by sixteen countries.

A. plays a crucial role in recognizing and preserving cultural heritage worldwide

B. These items can be seen and touched, serving as reminders of a society's past

C. passed down through generations

D. This organization also highlights the importance of these traditions to national identities

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS