PASSAGE 7

Tra ID Đề [5726] - Tra ID Video [5727]

A time capsule is a special container with objects inside. People choose the objects (1) _____they are living in. They then hide the container so that in the future people can open it and learn about life at that time. People often put time capsules under the ground or (2) _____. Recently, teachers at a school in England opened a time capsule from the year 1912, when the school was built. (3) _____. It also contained information about the history of the school. (4) _____. When the baby becomes an adult, he or she can enjoy finding the things which were important or in fashion in the year they were born.

Question 1:

A. in spite of they not being special

B. owing to their differences from the time

C. because they are typical of the time

D. although they symbolise the time

Question 2:

A. having them put into the museums

B. build them into the walls of buildings

C. that you throw them in the ocean

D. drop them from the top of mountains

Question 3:

A. Making of glass, the capsule brought them some interesting things from the past

B. The capsule was made of glass and it contained a plan of the school

C. It is the capsule that contains coins and newspapers from the past

D. The capsule which contained newspapers, and a plan of the school

Question 4:

A. Babies are always given a time capsule in their birthday at the present time

B. Besides the time capsule, babies who are born do not receive other gifts

C. Time capsules have become a popular gift for children in the 21st century

D. Nowadays, you can also buy time capsules as a present when a baby is born

LIVEWORKSHEETS

PASSAGE 8

Tra ID Đề [5728] - Tra SD Video [5729]

There are many websites on the Internet, (1) _____ the world's best cities to visit, live, or work in. These lists typically rank the cities in order, from 'best' to 'worst,' based on facts and figures provided by local or national organizations. The City Brands Index (CBI) also offers a list of the best and worst cities. However, (2) _____ that cities are similar to products in shops. It invites ordinary people from other countries to grade cities as they would a product, such as a soft drink or a car. What makes the CBI particularly different is that (3) _____ may not have visited the cities. Instead, they are asked to express what they think the cities are like, basing their opinions on things like news stories, magazine articles, or television programs they have encountered. Each year, approximately 10,000 people in 20 countries participate in the CBI survey, grading a total of 50 cities across several categories, including (4) _____.

Question 1:

A. which lists some

B. where list many

C. that provide lists of

D. which provide lists of

Question 2:

A. unlike others surveys, it assumes

B. it is different from other surveys because it assumes

C. the method used by other surveys is different, as it assumes

D. it assumes that, unlike other surveys,

Question 3:

A. the participants in the survey

B. many participants who

C. the people took part in the survey

D. those take part in the survey

Question 4:

A. the economy, education, environment, and local culture

B. economic, educational, environmental, and local culture

C. things such economy, education, local culture, and environment

D. local culture, the environment, climate, education

LIVEWORKSHEETS