

PASSAGE 9

Tra IDĐề [5730] - Tra ID Video [5731]

HaNoi's tramways were first introduced in 1900 and served as a main (1) _____. The sights and sounds of the trams were cherished by the people of Ha Noi. Since it was affordable and convenient, the system became popular for commuting within the city and to suburban areas. However, due to a rapidly growing (2) _____, the tram system was eventually removed.

After more than twenty years, Ha Noi's population has grown from about two million to over six million, leading to a major (3) _____. To address this issue, Ha Noi has launched its first skytrain line, connecting Cat Linh and Ha Dong, with plans to start operating by 2016. Additionally, a new rail project is underway, which will include eight kilometres of sky train and four kilometres of subway rail, (4) _____ in the coming years.

Question 1:

- A. public transport, which had served people for almost a century
- B. means of transport, that was leaving memories with Hanoians
- C. transit system, it was used by Hanoians in the old days
- D. transportation system which it connected the city's districts

Question 2:

- A. population increased and required more space for roads
- B. roads, leading to the expansion of many roadways
- C. population, which was followed by demand for more roads
- D. population and road systems widen through the years

Question 3:

- A. increase in vehicles as the number has grown in recent years
- B. rising amount of vehicles, they create a high demand on roads
- C. increase, which was because the growing population and demand
- D. rise that leading to congestion and more travel needs

Question 4:

- A. which is expected to be completed within a few more years
- B. expected to complete soon and launched for public travel
- C. to be completed by the time of its opening next year
- D. for completion soon, it will then serve people in Ha Noi

PASSAGE 10

Tra ID Đề [5732] - Tra ID Video [5733]

Flags serve many purposes - they decorate, communicate, and warn, but their most common use is to represent national unity. The colors on flags are often symbolic. For example, black can symbolize strength and determination, while blue can mean freedom and prosperity. However, meanings vary across countries, influenced by (1) _____ or cultural interpretations of color.

Flags are also common in sports, where they are used to signal important messages. There are no universal standards for sports flags, but in auto racing, a green flag generally means start, yellow signals caution, red means stop, and a black and white checked flag shows the race has ended. In American football, a yellow flag is thrown (2) _____ while Canadian football uses orange. Flags are not just seen on the field. Many sports teams have their own flags, (3) _____ and show support for their favorite teams.

Question 1:

- A. historical, or the way colors are seen
- B. historical meanings, which come from tradition partly
- C. culture and history, how people interpret color changes
- D. history and what the culture means for every country

Question 2:

- A. when there's a rule breaking, or a foul on the field
- B. for rule violations that stop the game
- C. why players break any rules or fouls occur
- D. when a rule is broken or if a foul happens

Question 3:

- A. which fans wave to express their excitement
- B. waved by fans, as a way of expressing support
- C. and fans waving them for showing team spirit
- D. fans wave them to express enthusiasm about their team