

Exercise 1. Complete the sentences. use words in the box.

take      grew      freezing      landed      help      took      fell      ice

1. We can't leave because there is a lot of _____ on the streets.
2. George can't do his math problems. He needs _____
3. Emmy's arm hurts because she _____ on the ice.
4. The temperature is 0° centigrade. It is _____ today.
5. The plane from Atlanta _____ at 7 p.m.
6. Tom _____ very fast last year.
7. When did his plane _____ off?
8. His Plane _____ off at 10 a.m.

Exercise 2. Answer the questions about the chart.

Weather in US Cities

| City           | January Temperatures (°F) | Inches* of snow Each year |
|----------------|---------------------------|---------------------------|
| Chicago        | 21                        | 40.0                      |
| Dallas         | 44                        | 3.1                       |
| Houston        | 51                        | 0.4                       |
| Los Angeles    | 56                        | 0.0                       |
| New Orleans    | 52                        | 0.2                       |
| New York       | 32                        | 26.1                      |
| San Antonio    | 56                        | 0.4                       |
| Washington, DC | 35                        | 17.0                      |

1. Which city's temperature is the coldest?
2. Which cities have more snow than Washington, DC?
3. Which two cities have the same temperature?
4. Which city do you think has the best weather
5. Which city do you think has the worst weather?

Exercise 3. Read the sentence. Select the statement that is true.

1. I studied last night, and I think I'll get a good score today.

- a. You're going to lunch.
- b. You'll play football today.
- c. You'll have a test today.
- d. You're doing your homework.

2. Mr. and Mrs. White got their traveler's checks this morning, and now they're leaving.

- a. They're staying at a hospital.
- b. They're going on a trip.
- c. They're going to the bank.
- d. They're driving a new car.

3. Class starts at 8:30 a.m., and you're late!

- a. It's after 9:00 a.m.
- b. It's 7 in the morning.
- c. It's 5 o'clock in the morning.
- d. It's 8:25 a.m.

4. Joe put on a heavy coat, a hat, and gloves, and left the building.

- a. It was summer.
- b. It was winter.
- c. It was spring.
- d. It was fall.

5. My friend Maria is from Spain, and she speaks two languages.

- a. Maria speaks English and Arabic.
- b. Maria speaks French, English, and Spanish.
- c. Maria speaks only French and English.
- d. Maria speaks English and Spanish.

6. The Johnsons left the store with a couch, an armchair, a coffee table, and two end tables.

- a. They just bought a new car.
- b. They needed some new clothes.
- c. They needed living room furniture.
- d. They went to eat dinner.

7. George lives near the river, and all his friends visit him on hot summer days.

- a. George usually goes to his friends' houses.
- b. George's mother is a very good cook.
- c. George plays basketball in the summer.
- d. George's friends like to swim in the summer.

8 . Mary got her soap, a towel, and a washcloth.

- a. Mary wants to take a shower.
- b. Mary went to the store.
- c. Mary needs some cigarettes.
- d. Mary's tired and thirsty.

9. For lunch today, Sam ate two sandwiches, three pieces of chicken, some potato salad, and some fruit.

- a. Sam had a big breakfast this morning.
- b. Sam was very hungry today.
- c. Sam didn't eat much lunch today.
- d. Sam wasn't hungry today at lunch.

10. Sally bought flour, butter, sugar, and chocolate at the store.

- a. Sally wants to make soup.
- b. Sally wants to make a sandwich.
- c. Sally didn't eat breakfast.
- d. Sally wants to make cookies.