

may / might

The weather might continue to change. We may get more storms. We may get hotter and wetter summers.

Language focus

Use may / might to talk about an action that is possible now or in the future.

We might win this match.

After may and might, use the infinitive without to.

We may go to Venice this summer not We may to go to Venice this summer.

May and might are often used similarly to could.

It may / might / could rain later.

However, notice the difference between them.

We could watch the new Star Wars film.

(Watching the Star Wars film is one of the many things that it is possible for us to do.)

We might see the new Spider-Man film.

(It is possible but not certain that we will do it.)
