The Lion and the Mouse

One day, a lion was sleeping in the forest. A little mouse was playing nearby and accidentally ran across the lion's nose. The lion woke up angrily and caught the mouse with his paw.

"I'm going to eat you!" roared the lion.

"Please forgive me, O King," begged the mouse. "I didn't mean to wake you up. If you let me go, I might be able to help you someday."

The lion laughed. "How could a little mouse ever help a big lion like me?" But he let the mouse go.

A few days later, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared and struggled, but couldn't break free. Hearing his roar, the mouse came and gnawed the net with his tiny teeth. At last, the lion was free. "You were right, little mouse," said the lion. "Thank you for saving me."

My Unforgettable Camping Experience

Last holiday, my school held a camping activity at a national park. We left on Friday morning and arrived after a two-hour journey. After setting up our tents, we gathered for the opening ceremony.

The next day, we did many outdoor activities. We had a jungle trekking challenge, which was both tiring and exciting. I also learned how to build a fire and cook with minimal tools. It was my first time doing those things.

On the last day, we cleaned up the campsite and packed our things. Before leaving, we took group photos and shared our experiences. [...]

13. What is the most appropriate sentence to complete the last paragraph as a conclusion or comment?
