PASSAGE 72

Reading books has always been a significant part of human culture, providing knowledge, entertainment, and a means of escape. In today's fast-paced world, where digital media dominates, the experience of reading a physical book can seem old-fashioned. However, taking time to read a book is still invaluable.

Now, with smartphones and tablets, people often choose short articles or social media posts instead of long novels. Yet, reading books encourages deep thinking and helps improve vocabulary and writing skills. When we read, we engage with the story and characters, allowing us to develop empathy and a broader understanding of different perspectives.

Every now and then, it's essential to disconnect from screens and immerse ourselves in a good book. Whether it's a thrilling mystery, a romantic novel, or a fascinating biography, books have the power to inspire and inform. They can take us to different worlds and introduce us to new ideas.

In conclusion, while reading habits may change over time, the joy and benefits of reading books remain timeless. Embracing both modern and traditional reading can enrich our lives in meaningful ways.

Question 1: What is the main idea of the passage?

A. Digital media is more beneficial than reading books.

B. Reading books is still important in today's digital age.

C. How digital media influences reading habits.

D. Books are becoming old-fashioned.'

Question 2: According to the passage, what are some benefits of reading books?

A. It improves physical health.

B. It enhances vocabulary and writing skills.

C. It helps with social media engagement.

D. It reduces screen time.

Question 3: The phrase "disconnect from screens" means to.

A. Stop using electronic devices. B. Use more electronic devices.

C. Change the screen settings. D. Watch more videos.

Question 4: What does the author suggest about reading habits?

A. They should only focus on digital media.

B. They should completely replace traditional reading.

C. A balance between modem and traditional reading is beneficial.

D. They have no impact on personal growth.

Question 5: The phrase "Every now and then" is closest in meaning to _____.

A. Frequently B. Occasionally C. Rarely D. Always

LIVEWORKSHEETS