V. Read the passage and choose the best answer to each of the questions. (Đọc đoạn văn và chọn đáp án đúng nhất cho từng câu hỏi.)

Located on the central coast of Vietnam, Hoi An boasts a unique blend of cultures and traditions. Its ancient town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a town of narrow streets lined with colorful shophouses, each displaying intricate carvings and vibrant hues.

The heart of the community becomes livelier in the evenings, when the sun dips below the horizon and the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge illuminates the Thu Bon River. Families gather for evening strolls, enjoying street food vendors offering steaming bowls of beef noodle soup and fragrant banh mi.

Despite the influx of tourism, the community maintains a strong sense of togetherness. Neighbors often gather for tea and conversation on their low wooden stools placed outside their homes. During festivals like Tet, the entire town comes alive with traditional celebrations, dragon dances, and communal feasts.

(Nằm trên bờ biển miền Trung Việt Nam, Hội An tự hào có sự pha trộn độc đáo giữa văn hóa và truyền thống. Thị trấn cổ của nó, Di sản Thế giới được UNESCO công nhận, là một thị trấn gồm những con phố hẹp với những căn nhà phố đầy màu sắc, mỗi căn đều trưng bày những hình chạm khắc phức tạp và màu sắc rực rỡ. Trung tâm của cộng đồng trở nên sống động hơn vào buổi tối, khi mặt trời lặn dưới đường chân trời và Chùa Cầu Nhật Bản mang tính biểu tượng chiếu sáng sông Thu Bồn. Các gia đình tụ tập đi dạo buổi tối, thưởng thức các món ăn đường phố bán những bát phở bò hấp và bánh mì thơm lừng.

Bất chấp làn sóng du lịch tràn vào, cộng đồng vẫn duy trì được tinh thần đoàn kết bền chặt. Hàng xóm thường tụ tập uống trà và trò chuyện trên những chiếc ghế gỗ thấp đặt bên ngoài nhà họ. Trong các lễ hội như Tết, toàn bộ thị trấn trở nên sống động với các lễ kỷ niệm truyền thống, múa rồng và lễ hội chung.)
