ONLINE PERILS

1. Jenny's guest works for an e-mail company.	TRUE	FALSE
2. David suggests not writing your e-mail address on a piece of paper.	TRUE	FALSE
3. David says it's better not to mix work and personal e-mail accounts.	TRUE	FALSE
4. There are little software programs that travel the internet looking for e-mail addresses.	TRUE	FALSE
5. Jenny claims not everyone can simply open a new e-mail account.	TRUE	FALSE
6. David advises people not to write e-mails in blue.	TRUE	FALSE
7. It's impossible to get a computer virus from an e-mail off a friend.	TRUE	FALSE
8. The recent phenomenon David speaks about is spelt "phishing".	TRUE	FALSE
9. David suggests never giving away information such as account numbers and passwords via an e-mail.	TRUE	FALSE

1. The presenter expresses frustration that she often finds her _____ of spam emails.
2. David recommends _____ email address to use on the Internet if you are having big spam issues.
3. Spam filters will analyze many things in a message, even the color or _____ the text!
4. Jenny expresses concern that a genuine email might be _____ if it's flagged as spam.
5. Users often infect their computers with viruses by _____ in emails.
6. Although spelt differently, _____ of the word 'phishing' is the same as 'fishing'.
7. Phishing can easily be avoided by never _____ to such fake emails.

LIVEWORKSHEETS