

SELECT THE CORRECT OPTION

Last weekend, I went on _____ (1) and saw some native trees. One was the Tala tree. It had green leaves, sharp _____ (2), and small round fruits. I also saw the Sarandí Colorado, which had dark green _____ (3) and bright red flowers. It grows near rivers and sometimes has small fruits too.

My favorite tree was the _____ (4). It had big red flowers, green leaves, and long seed pods as fruits. It didn't have thorns. All these trees grow in _____ (5), wet places and made my trip very special.
