THE HAUNTED HOUSE.

One rainy night, Lily and her dog Max found an old house at the end of the street. The house was big and dark. The windows were broken, and the door made a loud creak when it opened.

Lily stepped inside. In the living room, the lights were flickering. There was a big sofa and a dusty table. Suddenly, Max barked! "What is it?" Lily asked.

Then, they went to the kitchen. The fridge door was open, and the floor was wet. "Who was here?" Lily whispered. She heard a sound from the bedroom upstairs.

She climbed the stairs slowly. In the bedroom, the bed was made, but the window was open. The wind moved the curtains. Max growled. Something was under the bed!

Lily looked and found... a cat! "Oh Max, it's just a cat," she laughed.

The next morning, the house looked peaceful. It was not scary anymore. Lily smiled and said, "That was an adventure!"
