Dear Juan Carlos,

As I promised, I am writing to tell you all about my vacations. I've had an amazing time.

Let me start by saying that the road trip has been a true adventure. First, I decided to buy a map, which I thought would be helpful, but the problem was I didn't know how to read a map! Can you believe it? I had the car checked, which was a good idea because it had some details to be fixed.

When it was ready, I decided to start the trip. With nothing more than excitement, some clothes and a map, which I didn't know how to use, I started driving. The first city where I arrived was Oruro. I decided to spend the night there. I called some friends who studied with me and they took me to meet some popular places around the city.

The next day I continued my adventure. I was convinced I could use the map, and somehow I arrived to Uyuni, where I had no plans to be. I wanted to get to Tupiza. Imagine my surprise when I asked where I was. I couldn't do nothing more than staying there and get to meet the place.

The next day, some locals told me how to get to Tupiza and I drove, convinced to get to my destination. The landscape was amazing. I stopped sometimes to take pictures which I added to my letter. When I finally arrived at Tupiza, I went to visit all the places which my dad had told me to go to. I could not believe my eyes when I saw all the places, landscapes and people, who, by the way, are really nice and friendly. I stayed there for 2 days.

Then, I decided to use technology to help me with my trip, and programmed my mobile's GPS to get to Potosi, which was the best idea because I arrived in time. My mom was waiting at Potosi, where she is living. We packed her things and started traveling to Tarija. She took me to some places that were so beautiful I could not believe they were real. Tarija is a paradise that you really need to meet.

I sent you some pictures from my trip. Check them and tell me what you think. I'm going now; I need to pack for my trip back.

Please, write back and tell me about your vacations.

Love, Maritza
