Choose the correct alternative.

You use reflexive pronouns

a when the subject and the object of an action are the same / different.

b to emphasize that the action is performed by the subject and not by someone else / by someone else and not by the subject.

Complete the sentences with a reflexive pronoun.

1. Emily taught _____ to play the guitar.
2. You two are always talking about _____!
3. We must think about other people, not just _____.
4. I fell over and hurt _____ yesterday.
5. People always take selfies of _____.

Choose the correct alternatives.

1. My dad and my teacher know themselves / each other. They went to school together.
2. Wow, did you and Jess really plan the party yourselves / each other?
3. Katie and I always sit next to ourselves / each other at lunch.
4. Kyle and Sonia text themselves / each other all the time.

Find and correct the mistakes and write the correct reflexive pronoun or each other.

1. Jim and Katie have been going out with themselves for six months.

   _____

2. My dogs enjoy ourselves when I take them to the park.

   _____

3. Paul and I help ourselves with our homework.

   _____

4. That was a terrible thing to do! I hope you and your friends are feeling ashamed of ourselves.

   _____

5. Cleo and I don't talk to yourselves when the soccer is on TV.

   _____

6. Sandy hasn't spoken to Joe since they got mad at herself on Monday.

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS