One woman's 'no-spend year', and how she survived

She cycled 120 miles to a wedding, and her lunch budget was just 51p a day.

- A Michelle McGagh, a 34-year-old journalist, had a mortgage of £230,000 which she wanted to reduce. Last November, she looked at her finances and she discovered that every year she spent a lot of money unnecessarily – for example, £1,570 in the pub, £1,110 in restaurants, and £400 on coffees. So she made a radical plan – to stop spending money for a year. She continued to pay her broadband, gas, and electricity bills, and allowed herself £30 a week to buy food and household essentials. But she couldn't spend money on anything else – no clothes, no buses or flights, no meals out, no drinks, and no cosmetics.
- B She cooked large quantities of curry and bolognese sauce, which lasted her a week, and which she ate with rice or pasta. It was cheap and healthy, but also 'really boring'. She also experimented with home-made cleaning products and beauty treatments, like using vinegar for cleaning or olive oil as moisturiser, but she decided that most of them didn't really work.
- C At first, she tried to see her friends as often as before. She cycled 120 miles to be at a friend's wedding, and camped in their garden to avoid paying for accommodation. The following weekend, she rode 60 miles to Brighton to meet friends. But she couldn't join them for dinner in a restaurant, and when they went to the pub, she drank tap water. In the end, she simply went out less, which made her feel more isolated.
- D Of course, she couldn't afford to go abroad, so she missed a trip to Ibiza with friends. Her only holiday was a cycling trip to East Anglia, where again she camped. Here, for the first and only time in the year, she bought food that she had not cooked herself – a bag of chips for £1.95.
- E At the end of the year, she had saved £23,000. She was much slimmer and fitter – over the year, she had cycled 6,500 miles. She says she now feels freer and happier, because she appreciates the simple things in life. She also gained confidence and a sense of adventure.
- F But she learned the hard way that you can't really socialize if you don't want to spend money. The evening after her year-long challenge ended, she bought all her friends a drink in the pub. But she has not gone back to her past spending habits. She occasionally pays to socialize and go on holiday. She has even taken a taxi. But after buying a few new clothes and some perfume, she insists, 'I have absolutely no interest in buying anything else.'
- G So what's her key tip for those who want to save? 'Whenever you open your wallet, think about whether what you are buying is something you need or something you want. We all say, 'I need to buy this.' Most of the time, we want to buy it. Maybe we don't know the difference between needing something and wanting something any more.'

Compound nouns
Compound nouns are two nouns together, where the first noun describes the second one, e.g. cash machine. The stress is usually on the first noun.

COMMUNICATIVE Are you a saver or a spender?

1 Do you normally have cash in your wallet?

- a No, I always use my debit card. It's so easy now with contactless payments; I can even pay for things with my phone.
- b A little, yes. I've been in situations where I needed money and couldn't use my cards.
- c Always. I don't like paying with cards; it's much harder to know how much you've spent.

2 You've seen something you really love in a shop, but it's expensive. What do you do?

- a I buy it without thinking about where I'll get the money for it.
- b I use some of the money I've saved and I buy it.
- c I go home and see if I can find it on the internet for less money. If I can't, I don't buy it.

3 If you won or inherited money, what would you spend it on?

- a I would spend it all on things I want, including gifts for others.
- b I would spend some of the money and I would put the rest in the bank.
- c I would think of ways to invest it to get as much interest as possible.

4 What do you want your money situation to be in the future?

- a I don't really know. I never think about money.
- b I want to have enough money to live on and make sure that I can buy whatever I want.
- c I don't want to have to worry about money when I'm older, so I'm saving now.

5 What's your attitude to saving money?

- a I think saving money is a bad idea. It's better to spend it now!
- b I know I should save money, but I haven't always found saving easy. I do try, though!
- c I save money without thinking about it. I am regular and consistent about it.

6 Have you ever borrowed money from friends or family?

- a I've borrowed money quite often. I think it's good to ask for help when you need it.
- b I try not to borrow money because it's easy to forget to pay it back. I hate owing people money.
- c I hardly ever borrow money, because I always have enough saved for emergencies.

7 How do you feel about lending money?

- a I'm pretty generous and don't worry too much about getting it back.
- b I try never to lend money, especially to friends or family. It's always ended badly for me.
- c I don't mind lending money at a good interest rate, if I get repaid on time.

8 Have you ever had a credit card?

- a I use credit cards a lot. I never have enough money to pay for everything I want.
- b Yes, I think they're really useful. I don't like being in debt, but if I can pay it back quickly, it's OK.
- c I don't like using credit cards, so I don't have one. I prefer paying by debit card or in cash.

9 When would you apply for a bank loan?

- a If I wanted to go on holiday, or to buy something I really wanted.
- b If there was a real emergency.
- c If I had the chance to invest in a business, or some other investment opportunity, as long as it was safe.
