Starting any job is never easy, but what about starting your own business? That way you don't have to work for someone you may not like. Well, that is exactly what I decided to do. When I left college, a lot of my friends who were looking for jobs said it was very difficult. They went on a lot of interviews and sometimes had to take a job they didn't really like.

I loved baking and decided to sell my special cupcakes. But it wasn't easy. It was very stressful until a friend called me one evening. She told me about this TV show where a group of people offered to help new business owners. I was a bit scared. You have a few minutes to sell them on business idea and if they like it, they put money into your business. I told them all about my idea and at first, they were not very happy with it. But they were very interested and asked a lot of questions. At the last minute, one of the people decided to give me the money! I was so happy and excited!

This was two years ago and my business, Amazing Cupcakes, is doing really well! We sell our cupcakes to all the biggest supermarkets in Mexico. I have 45 people working for me, making our delicious cupcakes all day and night. It is hard work, but I love it. I'm so happy that I did it. Anyone with a dream should try their best to make it happen. The most enjoyable part of my job is that I can be creative, and I don't need to listen to a difficult boss! And if I want a day off, that's easy too!

- B. She sold cupcakes to supermarkets.
- C. She finished college.
- D. She went on a TV show.

Question 33. What does the author mean when she says "But it wasn't easy" in paragraph 2?

- A. She didn't know how to bake.
- B. She couldn't find a job.
- C. She didn't like her boss.
- D. She didn't have enough money for the business.

Question 34. What does the word "it" in the second paragraph refer to?

- A. money
- B. idea
- C. minute
- D. business

Question 35. According to the author, what is the best part of her job?

- A. Being creative and not having a difficult boss
- B. Selling cakes to big supermarkets
- C. Having many employees
- D. Making a lot of money

My name's Ariona and I live on the coast of Portugal where there are lots of beautiful sandy beaches and warm sunny days. It's the perfect location for my favourite hobby - making sand sculptures. (37) _____. For fairly basic sculptures like the ones I make, all you really need is a safe place to build it, something to dig with, (38) _____. I'd never actually thought of making sand sculptures before until my friends and I discovered some fantastic ones that were along the shore near where I live. (39) _____ that such beautiful model buildings, incredible creatures, and some amazingly realistic faces of famous people were all made out of sand. From that moment, I knew that this was something I just had to do even though I'd never considered myself to be an artist or very creative. In fact, anyone can create a sand sculpture, but it's much harder than it looks as I soon discovered. The first sand sculpture I ever made was of a two-metre-long dolphin. (40) _____. I tried everything to try and fix it, but it was hopeless. Soon the whole thing was a big pile of wet sand on the beach. Some people sunbathing nearby seemed to think this was extremely funny, but that made me want to keep trying even more. I wished I'd listened to an expert or YouTube who recommends digging up wet sand and use it to build the sand sculptures because it sticks together better.

- A. I couldn't believe
- B. and a large bucket
- C. It's always great fun and it costs nothing.
- D. I was making brilliant progress on it until quite suddenly the head started to break off!
