For each question, choose the correct answer.

'Freshly' Restaurant

by Peter Newman

Last week my parents and I visited Freshly, a modern British restaurant, in the centre of Brighton, Sussex. So it was the perfect opportunity to write a review for the school paper.

All of the ingredients used in Freshly come from Sussex and the surrounding area. It was also the first restaurant in the world to be serving only English wine. Since opening in 2018 Freshly has won many awards. The owner and head chef at the restaurant is only 24 years old and she has been cooking three-course meals for her family since she was nine and still at junior school. Jane did an apprenticeship at the famous Grand Hotel, in Brighton, and later also went to catering school in London. She says this was one of the hardest courses she has ever done and sometimes she was so tired that she could hardly speak. Despite this, she never felt like giving up because she knew she was following her dream.

Freshly is a small restaurant with a view over the back streets of Brighton where you can watch the world walk by. The staff are always welcoming. The head waiter is very informative about the food and how it is cooked and also from where all the ingredients have come from.

The chefs are not scared to experiment, so the menu changes regularly. The chefs are lucky enough to be a team of good friends, and they try to eat out at different restaurants as often as they can. They take a lot of inspiration from their favourite chefs to make the Freshly experience as perfect as possible.

One thing to remember, however, is that you are limited to what they have that day on the menu. Freshly, however, will always cater for people with special food needs and vegetarians. The food is beautifully prepared and comes in small tasty portions.

Wonderful homemade bread, too. Very nice - but expensive. Four set menus with an extra cheeseboard, two bottles of water and 2 coffees will cost around £150 without a tip. So yes, fine dining; but at a price.

- 11. The food at Freshly
- A. is grown by the staff.
 - B. comes from places in or close to Brighton.
 - C. comes from all over the world.
 - D. comes all over Britain.
- 12. Where did the owner start to train as a chef?
- A. at junior school
 - B. at university
 - C. at home with the help of her family
 - D. in a hotel
- 13. How did Jane feel while she was training to be a chef?
- A. She was really tired but felt positive about the experience.
 - B. She wanted to give up because of the pressure.
 - C. She wasn't sure if she would be successful.
 - D. She found it quite easy to finish the training.
- 14. What is said about Freshly restaurant?
- A. The head waiter is in charge of the menu.
 - B. The staff often change jobs because they like to do different things.
 - C. It is a big and fancy restaurant with a great view.
 - D. The staff have a very good relationship with each other.
- 15. What would Peter say about Freshly restaurant?
- A. Freshly restaurant may serve tasty food but it is extremely pricey - not worth it.
 - B. A great effort from a successful young chef who supports local products.
 - C. A famous chef that tried rather unsuccessfully to set up a different kind of restaurant.
 - D. The cheerful staff and nice location are the only things that are worth mentioning.

Part 4 Question 16 - 20

Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer. There are THREE extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Learning a language

Whatever your reason for learning a new language, you can probably agree it'd be ideal to learn it fast. (16) You'll have to learn a new grammar, memorise vocabulary words, practise speaking, etc. But learning a new language does not need to be a slow or boring process if you follow the right strategy.

The first step to learning a new language fast is to set goals.

When you think about it, this makes a lot of sense. (17) When faced with the idea of learning a new language, most of us feel nervous. Setting goals helps you to focus.

Languages are made up of a shocking number of words. English, for example, has between 600,000 and 1 million words. (18) Consider this: the top 100 words make up about 50 percent of English language texts, and the top 1,000 words make up about 90 percent! By focusing on learning these words first, you can increase the amount of information you understand very quickly.

One of the best ways to learn vocabulary words is to use flashcards. Flashcards allow you to test yourself, which helps you memorise new information. Try out electronic flash cards. (19) You can easily carry large amounts of words on your smartphone or tablet, and you can take advantage of flash cards that other people have created and made public.

When you're learning a new language, it can be hard to practise words in context because you haven't mastered yet enough vocabulary to make complex sentences. (20) For example, if you're learning the Spanish word casa (house), you could say, "I'm going to go to my casa now." You can also make up a sentence with the new word you're learning, the meaning of the word and a word in your own language that sounds similar.

- A. Paper flashcards work just as well but electronic flash card programmes provide some great benefits.
- B. But in reality, having goals doesn't help you achieve much.
- C. If you don't set goals, how can you know what you want to achieve?
- D. At this time, there is no point even trying to remember the word.
- E. Luckily, you don't need to learn anywhere near that many words to be good at a language.
- F. You should aim to learn about 5,000 words in a couple of weeks.
- G. To get around this, simply use the word in a sentence in your native language.
- H. Yet the idea of learning a language seems anything but fast.

Part 5 Question 21 - 26

Choosing your first job

In general we will all spend about two thirds of our life at work. This means that we will probably have many different jobs over the years. However, our first (21) of work is a very important one.

For example, if you are the type of person that enjoys working outside and being very active, it would be silly to choose a(n) (24) such as a receptionist. And let's face it, many people who start their first job are still teenagers with lots of energy. It's also important to have a job where you like your (25) There is nothing worse than having a boss that you don't like. But of course, you need to work hard and show that you are (26) in order for them to trust you and know that you will do your job well.

Part 6 Question 27 – 32

For each question, write the correct answer. Write ONE word for each gap.

How shopping has changed

I guess most teenagers have completely given (27) going to the shops to buy things and instead we are using the internet to shop online. (28) are many reasons for this. Firstly, we have so much to do that there is very (29) time to walk around the shops (30) for what we want. Also when the shops are open, we are usually at school so we can't get to them except during our school holidays. These days we also use credit cards (31) than we use cash, so it is very easy to pay for whatever we want to buy over the internet. But my mum says that these changes in our shopping habits have caused many shops on our high streets to close down. These days you can see empty shops everywhere, while in the (32) most shops were busy and successful.
