

Práctica: Uso de 'but' y 'because' en Present Simple

Ejercicio 1: Elige la opción correcta (but / because)

Completa las oraciones con 'but' o 'because'.

1. I like tea, ___ I don't like coffee.
2. She goes to bed early ___ she works in the morning.
3. He plays the guitar ___ he doesn't sing.
4. They stay home ___ it rains a lot.
5. We study English ___ we want to travel.

Ejercicio 2: Une las oraciones con 'but' o 'because'

Une las siguientes ideas usando la conjunción correcta.

Ejemplo:

- He is tired. He doesn't sleep well. -> He is tired because he doesn't sleep well.

1. I eat vegetables. I don't eat meat.
2. She walks to school. She doesn't have a bike.
3. They like football. They don't like basketball.
4. He is late. He misses the bus every day.
5. We don't go out. We are tired.

Ejercicio 3: Corrige los errores

Las siguientes oraciones tienen errores con 'but' o 'because'. Corrígelas.

1. I like pizza because I don't like pasta.
2. He doesn't play tennis because he loves football.
3. She goes to the gym but she wants to be healthy.
4. They are happy because they don't have a dog.
5. We are hungry but we don't eat lunch.