Bonfire Night Traditions and History

Multiple Choice Quiz: 6 Questions 🤔

Name: _____

Q1. Which year did the Gunpowder Plot, associated with Bonfire Night, take place?
a) 1605
b) 1588
c) 1612
d) 1559

Q2. Who was the monarch targeted by the Gunpowder Plot conspirators?
a) Elizabeth I
b) James I
c) Charles II
d) Henry VIII

Q3. What was the intended purpose of the gunpowder stored under the Houses of Parliament?
a) To light fireworks for a royal celebration
b) To assassinate government officials and the king
c) To warm the building for winter
d) To create a distraction for a robbery

Q4. Which of the following is NOT a traditional custom associated with Bonfire Night in the UK?
a) Burning an effigy known as 'Guy'
b) Setting off fireworks
c) Eating toffee apples
d) Exchanging gifts

Q5. What phrase is traditionally recited in connection with Bonfire Night?
a) Remember, remember the fifth of November
b) Long live the Queen!
c) God save our gracious King
d) Rule, Britannia!

Q6. In which part of the UK would you typically find the oldest and largest Bonfire Night celebrations, such as those in Lewes?
a) Scotland
b) Wales
c) England
d) Northern Ireland

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Bonfire Night Traditions and History

Multiple Choice Quiz: 6 Questions 🤔

Q1. Which year did the Gunpowder Plot, associated with Bonfire Night, take place?

a) 1605 ✅

b) 1588

c) 1612

d) 1559

Q2. Who was the monarch targeted by the Gunpowder Plot conspirators?

a) Elizabeth I

b) James I ✅

c) Charles II

d) Henry VIII

Q3. What was the intended purpose of the gunpowder stored under the Houses of Parliament?

a) To light fireworks for a royal celebration

b) To assassinate government officials and the king ✅

c) To warm the building for winter

d) To create a distraction for a robbery

Q4. Which of the following is NOT a traditional custom associated with Bonfire Night in the UK?

a) Burning an effigy known as 'Guy'

b) Setting off fireworks

c) Eating toffee apples

d) Exchanging gifts ✅

Q5. What phrase is traditionally recited in connection with Bonfire Night?

a) Remember, remember the fifth of November ✅

b) Long live the Queen!

c) God save our gracious King

d) Rule, Britannia!

Q6. In which part of the UK would you typically find the oldest and largest Bonfire Night celebrations, such as those in Lewes?

a) Scotland

b) Wales

c) England ✅

d) Northern Ireland

LIVEWORKSHEETS