Future Perpect Progressive

Carefully read the sentences and click on the errors!

① They recently change the road signs here and now there have been an accident. The driver won't have bean paying attention. The traffic is backed up for miles. The other cars will have been waited for hours for the accident to be cleared.

② When the new building is inaugurated, the construction crew will had been diligently working on the proyect for two year, consistently navigating the challenges and setback that inevitably show throughout the process.

③ Tim and I is getting old, we've been together for a long times. A few years after our marriage we got a plant to grew old with us. Our 40st anniversary is soon and when it happens, this plant will have been grown for 35 years.

④ On anticipation of the upcoming holiday season, the retail store will having been preparing for then surge in demand, with their inventory management sistems calibrated to handle the increase traffic and customer orders.

LIVEWORKSHEETS