A. Read the passage and choose the words from the box below to complete the summary. There are four extra words that you do not need to use.

The World Trade Organization (WTO) is an international organization that focuses on the trading rules between countries. Its main objective is to assist providers of goods and services in carrying out their business. By doing that, it aims to create more jobs and raise the standard of living.

There are 164 members in the WTO, representing 98 percent of world trade. Members are countries that wish to lower trade barriers and have more open markets for trading. These aims are achieved through WTO agreements, which are negotiated and signed by members.

Vietnam became a member of the WTO in 2007. Since then, the nation has passed some impressive milestones. Its GDP has doubled, and the poverty rate has decreased from 14 percent to 2 percent. Also, Vietnam has become one of the 20 biggest exporters in the world. WTO membership will likely help the country go on to achieve even greater things.
