When my friends left my house and my dad discovered my bedroom....(1) Oh man! He was mad, really mad. He was like a "monster". He wanted to "kill" me 🤣, but I ran away to the garden (2). My dad didn't run behind me, he talked to my mum about my attitude (3).

Some minutes later, I went back home and I did many house chores. Because I wanted to make my dad happy, I took the rubbish out (4) but I didn't take the paper and plastic for the recycling containers (5).

I cleaned the kitchen (6) but I didn't clean the windows (7). I also have a dog and a cat, so I fed my pets too (8), but I didn't feed the fish in the fishbowl (9).

In the end... My dad and mum were happy and pleased because I helped my family at home (10). I tidied up many rooms in the house but not my bedroom! (11)
