Business diary: Eugene Kaspersky

by Mary Watkins

Eugene Kaspersky is CEO of Kaspersky Lab, the Russian security software company. The company is based in Moscow and has offices in 5 29 countries. Its main competitor is Symantec. Most of the company's sales are outside Russia.

Kaspersky spends 50% of his time in Moscow, but the other 50% he 10 travels. He is often away for more than three weeks at a time. When he is away, he attends meetings, goes to trade shows and sometimes gives presentations. When he is in the 15 office, he spends time talking informally to colleagues – at their desks or in the company restaurant.

The Moscow office is like a big 20 family. Many people in the office are friends. Some go on holiday together. Everyone dresses informally. Kaspersky normally wears shirts and jeans, but he has a suit for important meetings with 25 presidents and prime ministers.

In Moscow, he does not get up early, especially after a business trip. "On some business trips, I only get 30 three or four hours' sleep a night, so I need to relax," says Kaspersky. At the end of a busy Moscow office day, he goes to the gym with his personal trainer. "It's a great way to relax after a busy day in the office." If he can, 35 he also takes two days off a month.

Holidays are important too. "In winter, I go skiing. In the summer, I often go to the mountains, where I can't use the Internet or my mobile 40 phone. But I can get a satellite connection."

C Answer these questions.

- 1 Is Kaspersky a formal or informal CEO?
- 2 Is most of his business in Russia or in other countries?
- 3 Does he work 24/7 (24 hours a day, seven days a week)?

D Decide whether these statements are true (T) or false (F). Correct the false ones.

- 1 Kaspersky travels a lot. T
- 2 He wears formal business clothes in the office. F
- 3 He gets up early every day. F
- 4 He goes to the gym after work. T
- 5 He likes to have time to relax when he's in Moscow. T
