

Past Event: Listen and fill in the blanks

A Day at the Leisure Park

Last Saturday, we finally [redacted] to the leisure park, just like I had hoped. It was one of the [redacted] [redacted] days I have had this year. We [redacted] there early and [redacted] to start with the [redacted] roller coaster. It looked scary, but it [redacted] amazing once it [redacted]. I even screamed [redacted] than I ever [redacted] before!

After that, we [redacted] from ride to ride. The water slide was definitely [redacted] than I expected, and the spinning ride [redacted] us laugh until our stomachs [redacted]. We also [redacted] the [redacted] churros I have ever tasted—much [redacted] than the ones at the beach last year.

The weather stayed perfect all day, and the park was [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] than other parks I have visited. In the evening, we watched a firework show that [redacted] us away. It was the [redacted] [redacted] show I have seen in a long time.

Looking back, I think we made the right choice.

The beach is relaxing, but this day [redacted] us more [redacted] and fun.

I [redacted] definitely love to repeat the experience next summer!

LEISURE PARK

Past Event: A Day at the Leisure Park

Reading Comprehension – Multiple Choice

Where did the narrator and their friends go last Saturday?

- a) To the mountains
- b) To a beach resort
- c) To a leisure park
- d) To the cinema

What ride did they choose to start with?

- a) The spinning ride
- b) The biggest roller coaster
- c) The water slide
- d) The Ferris wheel

What kind of food did they eat during the day?

- a) Burgers and fries
- b) Sandwiches
- c) Churros
- d) Pizza

What happened in the evening at the park?

- a) They had a picnic
- b) They got lost
- c) They left early
- d) They watched a firework show

How did the weather stay throughout the day?

- a) It was rainy
- b) It kept changing
- c) It stayed perfect
- d) It became very cold