A Blind Date

Emma and Tom meet on a dating app. They chat online for two weeks before they decide to meet. Emma likes Tom's profile because he is funny and loves animals. Tom thinks Emma looks kind and smart in her photos.

They choose a small Italian restaurant in the city for their first date. Emma wears a red dress, and Tom wears a blue shirt. They are both a little nervous at first, but after a few minutes, they start laughing and enjoy the conversation.

They talk about their families, jobs, and favorite movies. They both love comedies and Italian food. After dinner, they walk in the park nearby and talk more.

At the end of the night, they say goodbye with a smile. Tom asks Emma if she wants to meet again, and she says yes. It is a great first date.
