Match the sentence halves from Column A and Column B to form complete, meaningful sentences.

Column A

1. George I was chosen as king
2. George II was known for his bad temper
3. Queen Caroline supported science
4. George III lost popularity
5. George IV secretly married
6. Prince Frederick had a terrible relationship
7. George III suffered from
8. George II rebuilt the state rooms
9. George I preferred spending time

Column B

A. because of his mental illness and the loss of the American colonies.
B. because he was Protestant, not because he had the closest blood ties.
C. with his father and was even banished from court.
D. and had all her children vaccinated against smallpox.
E. at Kensington Palace in an extravagant style.
F. with his mistress Maria Fitzherbert, but the marriage was considered illegal.
G. mental illness that made him unfit to rule in later years.
H. in his native Hanover rather than in England.
I. and sometimes kicked his wig across the room.

LIVEWORKSHEETS