Part 3

PET 01, T1P3

Hello, everyone. I'm delighted you've chosen to do this one-week 1..... Before we start, I'll give you some important information.
First of all, your teachers. As you know, we're 2..... in two different singing styles and each has its own teacher. The 3..... will be taught by Robert Park – some of you will remember him from last year. And Susan Brokley will teach you to sing songs from famous 4..... Her surname's spelt B-R-O-K-L-E-Y.
The course highlight is the 5..... for family and friends on Friday. It'll begin at half past eight, but if your guests want to get the best seats to watch you, 6..... open at eight o'clock.
On the night of the concert, we want you to feel 7..... – T-shirts are fine – but we ask that they're blue so everyone looks similar. The traditional colour for concerts is black, of course, but we think that's a bit dark. You'll enjoy 8.....I'm sure.
Now for some other information. To find your way around the building, you can always ask your teachers or the 9....., if you need help. There's also a map showing where all the rooms are, which you can get from the 10..... I'll introduce you in a moment.
The lunch break will be at 1pm! We don't have a café, I'm afraid. There's a kitchen for 11..... food, but there's nowhere to sit and eat there. So, take your sandwiches or whatever to the hall – much nicer, with a view of the garden next door.
If anyone's using the public 12....., there's a charge. A monthly pass costs £20.
As you're only here for a week, it's cheaper to pay daily, which is £3, so that'll only cost you £15 in total. OK?
So, any questions?
