

1. Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses. Pay attention to the temporal coherence

When I (1) _____ (wake up) this morning, I (2) _____ (already / know) that something was wrong. My

By the time I (9) _____ (arrive) at the bus stop, the bus (10) _____ (just / leave). If I (11) _____

2. Each sentence contains a typical mistake with verb tenses. Underline it and write the correct form.

He has gone to the cinema yesterday.

We were knowing the answer, but we didn't say anything.

I am living here since 2019.

They didn't knew what to do.

She was cooking dinner when the phone was ringing.

3. Choose the appropriate phrasal verb from the list and complete it in the correct form.

List: cheer up – put on – fall down – get along with – set up – look out – give up – come back – try on – look

I was feeling really down, but my friends managed to _____ me _____ with a surprise cake.

Be careful! There's ice on the steps. Don't _____!

Have you _____ the new app? It helps you study phrasal verbs!

We _____ a meeting with the client for 9 a.m., but he never showed up.

After months abroad, she finally _____ and visited her family.

I couldn't _____ the meaning of that idiom in the dictionary.

I _____ smoking last year, and I feel much better now.

You should _____ this jacket. I think it would look great on you.

She doesn't _____ her roommate. They argue all the time.

If you're walking near the cliff, _____ — it's dangerous!

4. Complete the dialogue with the appropriate expressions from the list.

List: by the way – at the end of the day – it depends – I have no idea – fair enough – you never know – let me

Marta: How's your new job?

Luis: Hmm... _____, I thought it would be more exciting, but it's okay.

Marta: Any plans to stay there long?

Luis: _____, I'm not sure. Maybe something better comes up.

Marta: Well, _____, stability is important.

Luis: True. _____, have you talked to Ana lately?

Marta: No! What happened?

Luis: _____ — I just saw her with someone at the café.

Marta: _____, maybe it was just a friend.

Luis: Yeah... _____.

5. Complete the sentences with the correct passive form. Then, transform the active sentences into passive.

Part A – Complete:

The documents _____ (already / send) by email.

A new law _____ (introduce) next month.

The cake _____ (make) by my grandmother yesterday.

His laptop _____ (steal) while he was having lunch.

Part B – Transform:

They are going to announce the results tomorrow.

→ _____

Someone had broken the window before we arrived.

→

6. Comparatives and Superlatives – Describe and justify

Instructions: Complete the sentences by comparing or describing. Use connectors and justify your answers.

Travelling by train is usually _____ (comfortable) than flying because _____.

The _____ (bad) experience I ever had was when _____.

She is one of the _____ (intelligent) people I know. In fact, _____.

This book is _____ (interesting) than the previous one. I think so because _____.

7. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate clause (adverbial, relative, or noun) to complete the sentence.

I don't understand the reason _____ (Noun clause).

The car _____ (Relative clause) is parked outside my house.

He went to the store _____ (Adverbial clause).

Can you tell me _____ (Noun clause)?

The place _____ (Relative clause) was incredible.

I won't go out _____ (Adverbial clause).

8. Write 150-200 words about a typical day in your life. Be sure to include:

Verb Tenses: Use different tenses (past, present perfect, future).

Phrasal Verbs: Include at least 3 phrasal verbs.

Clauses: Add at least 2 subordinate clauses (noun, relative, or adverbial).

Comparatives and Superlatives: Use one comparative and one superlative.

Prompt:

Describe your day yesterday and your plans for the weekend. Talk about what happened, what you did, and how you feel.