Words:

- 1. ticket barrier
- 2. cable car
- 3. departure gate
- 4. sleeper
- 5. hovercraft
- 6. arrivals hall
- 7. coach bay
- 8. car park
- 9. yacht
- 10. buffet car

Definitions:

- A. A boat used for leisure, often luxurious and privately owned
- B. A raised area where passengers board or exit a coach
- C. A machine-controlled entrance where passengers scan their tickets
- D. A transport vehicle that moves over water and land using air cushions
- E. A train carriage with beds for long-distance night travel
- F. A designated place where passengers wait after landing
- G. A moving transport system suspended by cables, usually in mountains
- H. A public space where drivers leave their vehicles temporarily
- I. A section of a train where passengers can buy food and drinks
- J. A location at an airport where you board your plane

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 2: Complete the Sentences

Fill in the blanks with suitable words from the travel vocabulary.

1. We waited over an hour at the _____ before the coach arrived.

2. I always get nervous walking through the _____ at the airport.

3. They parked the car and walked to the _____ to buy their train tickets.

4. We took a _____ across the Channel instead of flying.

5. The _____ flew us over the mountains—what an amazing view!

6. He lost his wallet, but luckily someone returned it to the _____.

7. The train to Edinburgh leaves from _____ 9B.

8. We explored Venice by _____, gliding on water from island to island.

9. I love watching planes land from the _____.

10. The _____ is a great way to get around the city without traffic, it's got its own rails.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 3: Complete the Travel Log

Word bank (use all 8):
buffet car, yacht, ticket office, sleeper, underground, arrivals hall, departure gate, cable car

Text:
After landing, I found myself in the busy _____, where travelers were checking phones, hugging relatives, and dragging suitcases. I followed the signs to the _____ to catch my next flight. Unfortunately, it was delayed, so I quickly changed plans. I went downstairs to the _____ and caught a train to the coast. I had booked a seat in a _____, and though the bed was narrow, I managed to sleep well. In the morning, I grabbed breakfast in the _____ and admired the countryside flying past the window. At the station, I visited the _____ to ask about ferry options, but ended up booking a ride on a private _____ instead. Once I reached the mountain town, a breathtaking ride in a _____ took me up to the cliffs for a perfect ending to my spontaneous journey.

LIVEWORKSHEETS